

Said, each of whom (Payne, Gorney and Rice) are personally and well known to me, and whose names appear as witnesses to the above last will and testament of William Gorney deceased, and they the said Payne, Gorney, and Rice, being by me first duly sworn deponents and sayeth, that they subscribed their names to the above last will and testament of the said William Gorney as witnesses to the same, at the request of the said testator and further more these deponents sayeth that William Gorney did subscribe his name to the above and foregoing will in the presence of us viz B. F. Payne & Jonathan Gorney and the other deponent Ezekiel Rice deponents that he was requested to subscribe his name to the above last will and testament of the said William Gorney decd. by the testator who acknowledged the same to have been previously subscribed by him for the uses and purposes therein specified and that they all to wit B. F. Payne, Jonathan Gorney & Ezekiel Rice did subscribe their names as witnesses to the above will at the instance and by the request of the said testator, and declaring the said will to be his last will and testament, and further more the said deponents sayeth that agreeably