

Kennesaw Historical Society, Inc.

November 2009

Volume 17, Number 7

In This Issue

- Helen Odom Wins Preservation Award
- Now Booking Lectures for 2010

Contact Us

2829 Cherokee St
Kennesaw, GA 30144

khsociety@earthlink.net net

Helen Odom Wins Preservation Award

Helen Odom has been awarded the 2009 Kennesaw Historical Society award for historic preservation. Helen is a native of Kennesaw - she was born in a railroad section house in Kennesaw. She served for many years as postmaster of Kennesaw. In 2006, she was a contributor to the book Images of America: Kennesaw.

She received the 2009 award for her "continuing contribution to the preservation of the history of Kennesaw, Georgia".

Helen Odom (l) receives the 2009 Preservation Award from Kennesaw Historical Society President Robert Jones

Now Booking Lectures for 2010

The lecture calendar for 2010 is starting to take shape. You can see the list so far at:

http://www.mindspring.com/~robertcjones/khs/khs.htm#Upcoming\_Events

If you know someone that would be interested in presenting at a lecture in 2010, please contact Robert Jones at jone442@bellsouth.net. Typical lecture topics include the Civil War, railroads, local history and archaeology.

<http://www.mindspring.com/~robertcjones/khs/khs.htm>